The Cost of a Democratic Administra-

We publish, this morning, a statement of the special appropriations made by Congress at its last session, obtained by the correspondent of the official report soon to be published .--These figures, which will appear officially in the columns of the Government organ, the Washington Union, most effectually dispose of the misrepresentations of a large number of the Democratic papers, with regard to the Government expenditures for the year.

In sound numbers, the appropriations made at one session, with the permanent and surplus appropriations also applicable to the expenses Trailyest's appropriations... 16,501,401 most cortainly be used.) smoont to very near $104,000,000! The balance of lest year's appropriations alone, exceed $31,000,000! The balance of lest year's appropriations in the present year, according to the statement of $5 scretary Coss, exceed $31,000,000. The estimate of the "indefinite" appropriations, which have not included in the Cherk's report, for the reason that the payments on persions, private claims, &o, are made as allowed at the time, and cannot be exactly told until the sold of the year, is certainly very low at $2,000,000. Add to this, the "permenent" appropriations, for the public debt, and you have the assoninging aggregate for the year, as above stated.

Upon what grounds the upholders of Mr. Breen and the state of the propositions of the proposition of the propositions of the propositions of the proposition of the proposition of the proposition of the proposition of the p of the same year, (and which will most certainty be used.) smount to very near $104,069,000.

seen. The entire responsibility of this reasure on the shoulders of the Democracy. They have no hole to crace out of As the Gazette says they have full sway in every branch of the Government o enment. They are fully responsible in every department. The House is theirs. The Senate is theirs. The Excentive is theirs. All the schemes of public plunder, all the nice private speculations, all the luscious contracts, all the belligerent enterprises, all the magnificent salarice, regular or extra, are theirs. With the honand places in the land, for a little while lenger. But the day for reckets in pulity. Corruption has inveded the high places of trust, and the whole tendency is matters for memory, and probably less pleasant in that shape than in actual passession. The profligates, however, appear to be inclined to have their pockets opulently provided against the day of their retirement. There will be no end to their depredations and degradations, so long as they burrow in the Government Treasury.

The Lust Attempt.

No effort has been left untried by the Admini stration faction in Kansas, to induce the people on the rise. There had not been time to make of that territory to vote for the adoption of Le-compton to-day; but we entertain no doubt of the result. As a part of the machinery to coax the result to account the Facility. The Correspondent had a good passage out, but light weather. She was hove to about ten of that territory to vote for the adoption of Lethe people to accept the English proposition. Calhoun, after a delay of six months, issued certificates to a majority of the Free State members of the Legislature, and an earnest appeal is made by the Government paper, just before election, in favor of "acquiescence." It is confidently believed that this is according to the Administration programme. It is the only untried effort to carry Lecompton, but we do not anticipate any other effect from this manceuvering than to call out a more emphatic vote against the swindle. The Freemen of Kansas will prove their devotion to the cause of Freedom to-day, and administer such a rebuke to the abelitors of the Lecompton villainy as will never be forgotten!

SIEGULAR DEATH .- The story is probably familiar to all, of the young woman in olden times, who, to hide from her companions, got into a large cheet in an unoccupied room, the lock of which closed upon her, leaving her as it were, in her grave, for she was not found until only the skeleton remained. A case similar in some respects has recently occurred in New York city. A boy of ten years, named Geo. Ricker, was missed about two weeks since, and search was made in every direction, but without avail.-One night an offensive smell was detected around the house, and in searching for the cause, an old chest was opened, where the body of the child was found, in an advanced state of putrescrion. The cheet is provided with a self-fastening lock, and the child, having been known to play about it on the day he was miseing, must have got inside for some purpose, and the lid ialling, locked him in. Being in a room not of ten frequented, no noise, even if it was possible for the child to make any, could be heard.

The Crops in Wisconsin.

We have made pretty liberal extracts from our country exchanges, during the week, relative to the condition of the crops throughout the State. We append, this morning, a few more, ta ken from our exchanges received on Saturday .-From what information we have obtained, we see no resson as yet to change our opinion with regard to the yield of the Whest crop. The is now thought, will yield poorly, the former

Potatoes and corn are flourishing everywhere,

From the River Fails Joarnal, Pierce County.
In this section some winter whoat has been poured by the same cause (rost), but the spring wheat has generally escaped injury. A gentleman recently informed us that within a few weeks past he had hose in every section of the Same, and had mowhere seen as good, wheat and corn as in Pierce and St. Croix counties. He was of the opinion that we might easily take the premium on these crops at the State Fair.

From the Fountain City Beacon, Buffalo County. By invitation of Mesers. Hurlburt & Gates, By invitation of Meesta. Hurlburt & Gates, proprietors of the line of Stages between Alma and Eau Claire, we took a ride from the former place to Eau Claire and back again, passing through the greater portion of Buffalo and Eau Claire counties, storping for a lew days in the midst of a flourishing farming district, in the upper part of this (Buffalo) county, during which time we passed through several farms, and conversed with a good many farmers, and they all seemed to rejoice in the prospects of a good crou; we heard no complaints of the destruction of wheat by rust, which we can remember. Our cron; we heard no companies of the described of wheat by rust, which we can remember. Corn would jield an average crop, and "sod corn" nev-er looked better—the rather wet season being er looked better—the rainer wer searon cenn favorable to its growth. The wheat so free from disease, was sown in broken prairie, that sown in valleys,—so we learned on yesterday, from a farmer living in the Wanmandee Yalley—is more or less injured by the rust; but the weevil, which seems to be a plague of worn-cut lands, has done no injury.

Southern Views of Douglas, Speech. The Washington Union copies with great quato the denunciation of Douglas, by a number of the leading Southern journals as aiding in its great work of crushing out both Auti-Lecomptonism and the great robel who is ac-

the black republicans, even in the Carly of the with them. We think with the Charleston Merchy that "the proposition, which be considered in the South, to receive into fellowehip and support this unreportant and self-secking renegate, for the purpose of promoting the prospecte of a party success in the Northwest, is a blaw at the high office of party from the maintenance of great principles to the more combination for personal success and epolis."

The Mobile Register, July 18th, comes to the following very decided conclusion on this substitute and connexion with Senator Doughson't his autilities and connexion with Senator Doughson to treate a the water should be sent by the maid should be sent by the maid

For our part we proclaim at once that we utterly and emphatically repudiate all association and connexion with Senator Douglass and his autiLecompton rebels and renegades as members of the same party; and we hold that the democraticic party will cover itself in a ratinous demotalizaition, if it tanely forbears to visit the proupt sanctions of its condemnation upon this faction.
The recognition of or affiliation with Mr. Douglas will be nothing short of treason to the great and vital democratic principle of non-intervention.

We like his dimocracy, and the must toke his free-scoilism with the prefer to the him had his followers go over to the black republicans, even if they carry the next presidency with them. We think with the next presidency with them. But at or near midnight, the neighbor has been urged upon the administration from the cand support this unrepontant and self-secking renegate, the wild storm there raping. Its and the proposition is accounted its author. The villa House, Wing's grocery, and all the buildings in the neighborhood at the constraint of the government road, were under to the wife, and do many little rude things with abruptness out considering them worth an apology. The stranger, whom they have seen but yesterday, is stranger, whom they have seen but yesterday, is likely the received into fellowelip and auphor the wild should be stranged upon the administration from the city (who had no rest that night) the wild should be city to with a stranger, whom they have seen but yesterday, is stranger, whom they have seen but yesterday, is likely and any little rude things with abruptness of politeness to the young ladies of their acquaintance, while they speak with the considering them worth an apology. The stranger, whom they have seen but yesterday, is li

It would be just as reseasable to ally down our arms and surrencer to the black republicans as to down almost to the bridge; but the land side and has faction, who stand opposed to us on ground as exceptionable and hostile to our cause ground as exceptionable and settle on in the late session of Congress, an officiation with him manifestly involves a conception and surrender of the Democratic party to hims. It this is to be that price of pressrving the harmout of the party, and accurring the chances of its success in the next precifical struggle; we say let it be severed appart and shortered into frequents, and let it is benerited in the dust of diebat and disaster, rather than purchase success by means of lord with the properties of the success of the save than on the success of the success of the save than on the success of the success of the save than on the success of the success of the save than on the success of the success of the save than on the success of the save than on the success of the success of the save than on the success of the success of the save than on the success of the success of the save than on the success of the save than on the success of the success o pleasantly, "Yes, my dear, with pleasure."

An American Theodosson.—At the Probate Court for Chrishire County, N. H., holder, on Tuesday, the 20th hist, the last will and tostations of Crpt. John Towns, late of Keene, was brought up for judgment. The tenor of the instrument, says the Keene Seating, is quite extraordinary and remarkable, as critically a purpose on the part of the teststor, to render his existed of some fifty thousand dollars, as worth-less as possible to every living person. file. They often arrack the fectories and rob sent a small sloop with two gins, and a crew of the men to protect the factories. About ten tory, kupt by a Portugnese. The way he produce slaves is as lollows:—On the right bank of the river, going up, there are two trioss.—

When he wants a supply of slaves, he plies them with whisky, and makes them large promition, and in low days they leave for the interior. They are generally gone about two months, and if victorious, they return with planting of prisoners, whom they sell to the slave menthous the more hant. The latter gives about $10 cash, for man, woman and whild, and the slaves are all placed in factorics, well guarded by negroes, ontil grot time as they are seet on board the slaves ships.

The hadre-act-law objected to the establishment lt is a well known fact, that most of the same of the will, of course—they thought the provis-

Second. That he has no consciousness of his Second. That he has no conscioueness of his strength, beyond his experience, and can be bundled according to our will without lores. Third. That we can, in compliance with the laws of his nature by which he examines all things new to him, take any object, however fightful, around, over, or on him, that does not it diet pain, without causing him to fear. The horse, though possessed of some faculties superior to man's, being deficient in reaconing powers, has no knowledge of right or wrong, of free will and independent government, and knows not cfany imposition practiced upon him, however cureasonable these impositions may be. Consequently, he cannot come to any decision as to what he should be should not do, because he has not the reasoning faculties of man to are he has not the ressoning faculties of man to argue the justice of the thing demanded of him.—

ESPECTFULY informs the Laddes that she has a fail and choice asportment of SUMMER COODS:

Bounets, Ribbons, Rusenes, Flowers, Ac., Act to home has noticed his natural inclination to the horse has noticed his natural inclination to smell everything which to him hooks new and frightful. This is his strange mode of examining everything. And, when he is rightfored at anything, though be looks at it sharply, he seems to have no confidence in his optical examination alone, but must touch it with his near before he is entirely eatlefied; and as soon as this is done, all is right.

We might very naturally suppose, from the lact of the horse's atplying his nose to everything new to him, thathe always does so for the purpose of smelling these objects. But I believe that it is as much or more for the purpose of feeling, and that he makes use of his nose, for muzzle as it is sometimes called as we may determine and the lack was a many to the second our bands; because it is the only organ by which he can touch or feel anything with much susceptibility.

In order to obtain perfect obedience from any horse, we must have him fear us, for our motion is, fear, love and obey; and we must have the fulfillment of the two first before we can expect the latter; for it is by our philosephy of creating fear, love and confidence that we govern to our will every kind of horse whatever. I should not want, for mysed, more than helf or three-quarters of an hour to handle any colt and have him running about in the stable after me; though I would advise a new beginner to take more time, and not to be in too much of a hurry. When you have entered the stable standstill, and let your horse look at you for a minute or two, and as soon as he is settled in one place, approach him slowly, with your arms stationary, your right hand hazging by your sice, holding the whip as directed, and the left bent at the chow, with the hand prejecting. As you approach him, go not too near his head or croup, so as to make him move either backward or forward, steep a little to the right or left, very cautiously; this will keep him in one place. As you get very near him, draw a little to his shoulder and stop a few teconds. If you are near him, he will turn his head and smell your hand, but because that is prejecting, and is the nearest portion of your bady to the horse. This all colts will dee, and they will emell your naked band just as quickly as they will of anything that you can put in it, and with just as good an effect, however much some men may have presched the doctrine of taming horses by giving the animals the seen of sriches from the hand. I have already made it appear that the notion is a mis-

As soon as he touches his nose to your hand, carees him as before directed, always using a very soft light hand, merely touching the horse always rubbing the way the hair lies, so that your hand will pass along as smooth as possible. As you stand by his side, you may find it more touchester to rub his neck or the side of his bead, which will answer the same purpose as tubbing the forehead. same words, with the same kind, steady tone of voice; for the horse soon learns to read the expression of the face and the voice, and will know as well when fear, love, or anger prevaits as you know your own feelings; two of which—fear and anger—a good horseman should never feel.

If your horse, instead of heing wild, seems to be of a stubborn or mulish disposition; if he lays back his ears as you approach him, or turns his heels to kick you, he has not that regard or fear of man that he should have, to enable you to handle him quickly and easily; it might be well to give him a few sharp cuts with the whip about the legs, pretty close to the body.—It will crack keenly as it plies sround his loze, and the crack of the whip will affect him as much as the stroke; besides, one snarp cut about his legs will affect him more than two or three over his back, the skin on the inner part of his legs or about the flank being thinner and more tender than on his back. But do not whip him too much.

THE New York & Eric Railroad Crapany have ournearly endeavored during the past ten mouth, to estaolich and manular uniform and retruerative rates of traffic by the four area! lines which connect the Atlantic olices and the West. Having fasted in this, and believing it to be injudicious and improper to indicance traffic by the issue of free pagers, by the complayment of runners and solicity so by any other uniterhand means, the Orngany, rather that racers the such means, have determined to reduce the fares on and after Monday June 14, as follows:

Foot of Mason Street, sear Post Office,

TARE Emberchers have removed their stock from the a nable formerly occepted by the mice mere of Male and theren atts, to the old establishment, foot of siacen at, thus consolidating the two in one, making the largest and bear appointed by lever establishment in the entire West. We shall be giad to see our friends and customers, and feet confident that we can furnish then with as good and stylish a turn out as any similar establishment is the city. Particular attention sives to similar West, We shall be grad to see that it has an arrival than with as good and stylish a term out as any similar establishment in the dity.
